Dulaney Off.

Judge Dulaney has withdrawn from the race for Judge of the Court of Appeals. In an interview with a reporter of the Bowling Green Times he gave the following reasons for withdrawing:

"I have had many inquiries recently, both oral and written, and coming from many counties in this Appellate District, asking whether I intended to contest for the Judgeship of that court, couched in kindest terms. Hitherto my official duties that I did not feel at liberty to put aside, have demanded nearly all my time and I thought that when the general committee met and fixed the time, place and methods of the convention, I would probably make urgent effort to win what I sincerely desire and what I value as the chief place within the gift of the people. That committee has acted and the time given for the canvass and the method named for the selection of delegates, makes it impossible for me to win, for I have never been in many of the counties of the district. I really feel very grateful to my professional brethren and to many good men throughout the district who have tendered me support, should I seek the place, but these reasons given are sufficient ones for now declining to make what must needs be a hopeless contest."

This leaves Judge Bennett the only candidate now on the track. Judge Bowden also has a walk-over in the race for Judge of the Superior Court. Both of these gentlemen will be given the formal endorsement of the Democratic party at Henderson April 28th.

Mr. Straus, who has introduced more good bills than any other member of the House, is now trying to secure the passage of a whipping-post bill. It provides that wife beaters and thieves who steal less than $25 shall be punished by the infliction of 30 stripes upon their bare backs. This is a good bill and its passage will not only save the State thousands of dollars by lessening the number of convicts, but it will do a great deal towards putting a stop to stealing. Of course there will be chicken-hearted sentimentalists to cry out against the "relief of barbarism," but we hope to see the bill become a law. There is about as much "barbarism" in the country nowadays as there has ever been and there is a crying demand for "barbarous" remedies to put a stop to some of it.

Wonder if it has ever occurred to the Legislature that it might save the State $138 a day by reducing the per diem of members from $5 to $4? Of the 38 states 9 pay Legislators by the session, 7 pay $5 and over 22 pay from $1 to $4 per day. It seems that while the General Assembly is looking up measures to cut expenses that a bill reducing their own pay to $4 would be a step in the right direction. But a still better bill would be one making the pay for the session $240-$4 a day for 60 days.

TOBACCO SALES.

Sale by Wheeler, Mills & Co., of 88 Hhds. tobacco as follows:

60 Hhds. good to com. leaf—$8 60 to 5 30.

24 Hhds. good to med. lugs—$5 00 to 3 00.

4 Hhds. common and trash lugs—$2 50 to 2 30.

Market a shade firmer and higher on all well ordered tobacco's, wet and irregular samples sell at ruinously low prices. A great deal of tobacco is being prized in this bad order, and it is impossible to get anything like a fair price for it.

Sales by Hancock, Fraser & Ragland of 118 hds. as follows:

19 Hhds. fine good leaf—$17 25 to 15.

53 Hhds. medium leaf—$8 00 to 6 00.

46 Hhds. common leaf and lugs—$6 00 to 3 00.

Market irregular with a tendency to lower prices on common and medium leaf—good and fine leaf strong.

The end of the great strike seems to be near at hand. The Knights of Labor have been ordered back to work at St. Louis and matters are being arbitrated in other places. The terms of the compromise have not been made known.

KENTUCKY KNOWLEDGE.

The Senate has passed a bill authorizing Harlan county to build a court house.

Maj. W. H. Botts, of Barren, is a candidate for Congress in the 11th District, and the Glasgow Times gives him a two-column send-off, headed by a portrait of the distinguished gentleman.

Edward Meyers, of Lexington, was announced to wed a wealthy young lady, beautiful and accomplished, this week, but Monday morning Miss Josephine Walters walked into the county judge's office and got out a bastardy warrant for Meyers, charging him with being the father of her two-months-old child. Meyers was arrested, confessed and finally settled the matter by marrying the girl he had wronged.

Neely Sexton, a blooming girl of 20, was jailed at Franklin for carrying a pistol. The girl had been living with Mrs. Dawson and in a quarrel with the old lady drew a pistol on her, and the latter caused her arrest. Beverly Boyd, a son of the old lady, employed counsel to defend the girl and Tuesday the indictment was dismissed on demurrer and young Dawson procured a license and married the accused on the spot. The next day he was arrested and sent to jail for 50 days for whipping his mother.

KELLY STATION.

ED. SOUTH KENTUCKIAN:

I append a few items herewith which, if your paper is not too much crowded with more important news, you might find a little space for.

News items are rather scarce at present as people are attending more to their farming operations now than anything else. Much plant ground has been sown and all are making preparations for a large acreage of tobacco. Most farmers in this vicinity are canvassing their plant beds. How our grand-fathers would have laughed at such an idea! But the motto of the present day is "progress." Farming in by gone days was a kind of "go as you please," "hit or miss" business and a man was satisfied with small returns, land was worked until worn out and then new land was cleared and the old turned out, but in these days of progressive farming with costly machinery, patent fertilizers and improved appliances of all kinds it is looked upon more as a business venture and the outlay is considered, and loss and gain carefully counted. There is as much marked improvement in farming as any other operation in the world.

The warm spring weather recently was very productive of grass and candidates. Our new precinct here (No. 16) is actually burdened with candidates for magistrate; there are as yet but two for constable but very likely more to follow. Get on the track boys but remember somebody must be ditched, but as the sleeping cat catches no poultry, even so the sleeping candidate catches no votes.

I learn that there is an organization of the Knights of Labor in Hopkinsville. Well I am a laboring man and as such my sympathies are with the laboring men, but I am afraid these same Knights of Labor are going to prove the truth of the old adage: "Give the devil rope enough and he will hang himself." It is natural for men to rebel and strike for justice but that is no justification of the destruction of property. No doubt railroad companies and other corporations are oppressive on their employees, but that does not give the employees the right to destroy the company's bridges, engines, etc. Again it would be well enough to know that the employer is able to pay more wages before demanding more, and then be careful not to demand excessive pay. A man should have all his labor is worth and no more, is the opinion of

BUCK.

Floods at Chattanooga.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., March 30.—The unprecedented heavy rains of the past thirty-six hours are proving very disastrous, and especially so to railroads. Traffic on the roads centering here is abandoned. A long trestle on the Alabama Great Southern was washed away this morning, and also the Hurricane bridge, near Chickamauga, on the Western & Atlantic railroad. The water is three feet deep on the Cincinnati Southern railway, near Rathburn, and the north-bound passenger trains which left this morning were backed in the city. No trains from Nashville or Memphis for twenty-four hours. The rain is pouring down in torrents and will cause great damage. Fears of a flood in Tennessee river are entertained.

Discharged Miners Become Operators.

[Special to the Louisville Times.]

MADISONVILLE, Ky., March 29.—Gough & Walton, as the agents of the Miners' Co-operative Mining Company, largely composed of Knights of Labor, recently discharged by the St. Bernard and the Hecla Coal Companies, at Earlinton, in this county, to-day purchased of Williams & Dulin 600 acres of coal land lying near Mroton's Gap, paying therefor the sum of $9,500. The purchasers claim to have already subscribed over $12,000. This amount will pay for the land and leave a balance sufficient to start improvements for the early opening of the new mines and the employment of the 200 Knights now idle and remaining at Earlinton and Hecla. The Nashville Labor Association raised a considerable portion of the sum subscribed.

President Cleveland nominated a colored lawyer of New York named Matthews to be Register of Deeds for the District of Columbia, and the Senate Committee, composed of Republicans, has reported adversely on the nomination. The President knows him to be a good man and well qualified and therefore refused to withdraw the nomination. Can the Republican Senate refuse to confirm the nomination and expect to make a satisfactory explanation to the colored people of the country?

DIED.

WOOD.—At his residence near Trenton, Tenn., at 8:30 o'clock Sunday Mar. 28th, Mr. Harlin J. Wood departed this life. He was born in this city in 1822 and was therefore 64 years of age. He was the father of Mr. Eugene Wood, of the Eugene Mills Co., of this city, who is one of several grown children who survive him. For seven years preceding his death Mr. Wood was an invalid and a great sufferer. He was a man of many good parts and with strong points of character, a useful citizen and an honest man. His remains were interred in the family burying ground near his home.

Dr. James Wheeler.

At a meeting of the Christian County Medical Society, held at the office of Dr. Fairleigh, Wednesday, March 24th, 1896, the President, Dr. Williams, presiding, the death of our distinguished confrere Dr. James Wheeler was announced. The discussion elicited was warm and pathetic. The feeling manifested showed that no ordinarily sad blow had been dealt our band of brother doctors. Not one present failed to have a kind word to say and all were affected to tears.

The President appointed a committee consisting of Doctors R. W. Gaines, L. B. Hickman and R. M. Fairleigh to draft a paper showing the sense of the Society in their bereavement. The committee reported as follows: "We have received the announcement of the death of Doctor James Wheeler with profound sorrow. "The observation of his habits during his many years of residence in this community has convinced us he was a model citizen, model husband and model father. "He was unusually conservative in medicine. His acute perception, his simple familiarity of the bed-side and his accurate collation of facts and the intelligent way he presented the result of his deductions made his advice in our councils of inestimable value. "His advice to the younger members of the profession was always timely and good. Many have profited by it. "His ethical bearing was always conspicuous and will always be remembered. "Doctor Wheeler is lost to us in bodily form but his example will long out-live the corporeal."

Signed,
R. W. GAINES,
L. B. HICKMAN,
R. M. FAIRLEIGH.

These sentiments were adopted unanimously and ordered to be spread on the minutes, published, and a copy furnished the family.

Our old friend Mr. Geo. W. Pitzer, of Fruit Hill, was in the city Wednesday for the purpose of straightening up a report that he had eloped with Miss Jane Manahan, a 16-year-old girl. Mr. Pitzer is an old gentleman far advanced in years, who, if we remember correctly, was only recently bereft of his wife, and he was much aggrieved at the publication, which was made by a correspondent to a local paper, who jumped at a conclusion. To those who know Mr. Pitzer it is unnecessary to say that the report was wholly unfounded and a satisfactory correction has been made.

One of the handsomest show-windows to be seen on Main street is that of Jones & Co., the dry goods men on the corner of Seventh St. Their store room, which was already one of the prettiest in the city, has recently been beautified and improved in appearance greatly by new papering on the walls and ceiling and a new coat of paint on the front. The display of goods in the large show-windows is not only very attractive but the articles are arranged in the very best of taste. Messrs. Jones & Co., have just received their spring goods and are prepared to serve the public with the best grades of goods in their line at the most reasonable prices. Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at J. R. Armistead's.

Notice to Members of Church Hill Grange No. 109.

We wish a full attendance on the second Friday in April, as business of importance in regard to stock sale will be transacted.

Death of Capt. Cook.

It is always a sad and painful duty to us to be called upon to record the triumphs of the grim messenger of Death, but when the victim is a young man of the brightest promise, of the noblest character and full of the fire of youth and the vigor of health, the task becomes one of especial sadness. We are called upon to note the untimely death of one of Hopkinsville's best, worthiest and most exemplary young men. A young man who enjoyed the respect of all who knew him and who ingratiated himself into the loving esteem of those who knew him intimately. At 4:30 o'clock P. M., Mar. 31st, Edwin R. Cook, Jr., breathed his last, after suffering untold agonies for ten days.

A FATAL BRUISE.

On the morning of Mar. 20th, a doctor came to the store-room of Messrs. James Pye & Co., where the deceased was employed as book-keeper, and got into a fight with a dog belonging to Mr. Pye. Capt. Cook, in attempting to separate them struck his abdomen against the corner of a counter. The hurt was a painful one, but it was not thought at first to be of a serious nature. However, by the following day bad symptoms began to develop themselves and Capt. Cook was compelled to go to bed. Peritonitis followed and the sufferer gradually grew worse, although he was under the watchful care of two of the most skillful physicians of the city. Several days ago it became evident that his condition was exceedingly critical and that the chances of recovery were very slight. Nevertheless his strong will power kept him from giving up the fight, and it was not until Wednesday morning that the nearness of dissolution became manifest and his physicians announced that the last hope must be abandoned. At the hour named above he died, surrounded by his sorrowing relatives and friends, at the residence of his parents on Seventh street.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

Edwin R. Cook, Jr., was born Dec. 4, 1861 and was consequently a little over 24 years of age. He was the second son of Dr. E. R. Cook and was born in Hopkinsville and lived all his life in and near the city. The writer knew him as a schoolmate and his happy, genial and companionable disposition made him a favorite with his school-mates and when he reached manhood he retained the same traits and there was not a young man in the city who possessed more of the elements of popularity than he. As an evidence of this when Co. D. was organized last year he was chosen captain with one voice by the members. He will be buried in his military suit and his pall bearers will be chosen from the members of Co. D.

Deceased had been for several years connected with the furnishing house of James Pye & Co., and no young man in the city stood higher in business circles. He was courteous and polite to everybody, affable and winning in his manners, honest and upright in all his dealings. In his everyday life he was the soul of honor and true to his friends, firm in his convictions and generous in his impulses. If he had an enemy in the world he did not know it and his whole life was made up of deeds that endeared him to his friends and commanded the respect and esteem of his acquaintances. His broken-hearted parents and other mourning relatives have the deepest sympathies of the entire community. His funeral will be preached from the Baptist Church at 10 o'clock to-day, by the pastor, Rev. J. N. Prestidge, assisted by Rev. J. W. Venable, of the Episcopal church, and the remains will be interred in the City Cemetery.
